Cookbook

Over 20 years ago, the Society produced a cookbook. The long-awaited sequel to that book is now available for sale at the Museum's gift shop for only $20. It includes 137 recipes submitted by members of our Society in an attractively illustrated, coil-bound, 104-page volume. Only $20.

Right: Leslie and Paul Conway (seen here with Plaques and Programs co-chair Elle Andra-Warner, centre) spoke on Stephen Leacock and his views on history at the Museum's October meeting. This was part of their cross-country tour celebrating Canada's 150th anniversary.

Paint Nite (Feb. 6, 2018 at the daVinci Centre)

The Museum is sponsoring a Paint Nite event at the daVinci Centre Sports Bar on Tues. Feb. 6, 2018. Over a 2-hour session, an artist will guide you step-by-step as you create your own painting to take home. It's not an art class - it's a party! All will be supplied (except for food and beverages, which you can purchase at the Centre) but make sure to dress for painting. Paint Nites are open to adults aged 21 and older. To register, go to www.paintnite.com and sign up for our event.

New Book

Ten Generations –

Then an Artist:

The Susan Ross Story

Written by Jim Stevens, this short biography of one of Thunder Bay's most successful artists, will be available soon. With Jim's superb story-telling ability and impeccable research skills, accompanied by numerous colour illustrations, this book will be a must-read for the Christmas season and a book you will want on your library shelf for years to come. Both softcover and hardcover versions will be available. Order a copy now.
