Call for Nominations

Every second year the Society holds its Publications Awards. We are currently seeking nominations of books and articles, both academic and popular, that deal with some aspect of Northwestern Ontario's history and that have been published in the past three years. If you know of a publication that is worthy of an award, contact Tory Tronrud at the Museum. If you are nominating one of your own works, we will require three copies of it for distribution to the judges. Nominations close on May 31.

Gift Shop

Now in the Gift Shop:

- Custom-made Sister Bear earrings $40
- Thunder Bay 3-D fridge magnets $5
- Wishstones $5
- Agate slices $3

The Museum's Gift Shop is open during normal operating hours. We also have an excellent selection of books relating to Northwestern Ontario's history.
